

at SCU, works closely with new law students, participates in career days, and works with community organizations.

Sparky Harlan, Executive Director of the Bill Wilson Center, has worked on behalf of homeless youth for over 25 years.

Dr. Robert Hersch has served on the board and worked with every aspect of Live Oak Adult Day Services.

Delia U. Jurado is a leader of Filipino community volunteers who works on behalf of seniors, new immigrants, and community groups.

Lor Layso, a leader in the local Cambodian community, has helped hundreds of Cambodian refugees adjust to life in America and eventually apply for citizenship.

Alette Lundeberg has helped Santa Clara County and the community assist welfare recipients from welfare to work.

Elizabeth Menkin, M.D., serves the community over and above her professional duties by volunteering with the Mother's Milk Bank, MADD, and child-care and hospice programs.

Ann Holland McCowan and John Holland McCowan. Six-year-old John worked with his mother, Ann, to found Kids Cheering Kids, an organization to better the lives of children with special needs in Santa Clara County.

Judy Nakano volunteers with the San Jose Buddhist Church Betsuin and Girl Scouts, bringing the two groups together.

Dr. T.J. Owens, Dean of Students at Gavilan Community College in Gilroy, has devoted most of his life to education and community services. He is a former member of the Human Relations Commission and is the past president of the Friends of the Human Relations Commission.

Rolanda Pierre-Dixon, a Santa Clara County Deputy District Attorney, promotes a "no excuse for domestic violence" theme at court, community meetings, conferences, and task forces.

Robert Riordan plays the role of "grandpa" in the lives of many young people who do not have grandparents nearby.

Jerry Rosenblum, a senior partner in a San Jose law firm, uses his legal expertise to serve the community at places like Live Oak Adult Day Services.

Father Mateo Sheedy, Pastor of Sacred Heart Church in San Jose, is an inspiration to us all. In the words of Santa Clara County Supervisor Blanca Alvarado, "Everybody loves him; he is one of the best human beings."

Lillian Silberstein, Executive Director of the National Conference for Community and Justice, has initiated many civil rights programs and promotes understanding and respect among all races, cultures, nationalities, and religious affiliation.

Vicci Smith, a student at San Jose State University, volunteers as co-director of the university's Women's Resource Center.

George Soto, interim Director of Employment Benefit Services of the Santa Clara County Social Services Agency, brings honesty, integrity, fairness, and commitment to the human concerns of all.

Deborah Stinchfield has been a volunteer at the Mid-Peninsula Hospital Foundation for 21 years, where she promotes awareness of end-of-life issues and hospice care.

Colette and Frank Swaringen have developed the "Script for Safe Kids," a video used across the county to alert to the common lures used by child abductors.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

Joseph R. Tembrock is a founder of Sacred Heart Community Services, the Rotating Shelter in Cupertino, and the Interfaith Hospitality Network.

Florence Trimble, known as the Mother Teresa of Gilroy, has dedicated her time and love to recruiting volunteers to address the needs of the homeless.

Forrest W. Williams provides valuable service to programs for young people. He has been a mentor for many years and serves on the San Jose Planning Commission and the United Negro College Fund Executive Advisory Board.

In addition, I would like to congratulate the six community groups who received the Human Relations Award. The groups are: AAUW Committee on Homeless Women and Children—Los Gatos/Saratoga Branch; Adelante Mujer Hispana of Santa Clara County; Almaden Council Pacific Bell Pioneers; Dispute Resolution Program Services Volunteers, Office of Human Relations; Filipino Youth Coalition; and Mountain View Diversity Forum.

SUPPORT AMERICAN STEEL

HON. MICHAEL R. McNULTY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 3, 1999

Mr. McNULTY Mr. Speaker, I want to express my deep concern about the crisis facing our American steel industry. The continued dumping of steel is causing tremendous harm to the industry and forcing huge lay-offs of hard-working U.S. steel workers. Over 10,000 steel workers have been laid off in the past year as a result of the flood of under-priced steel coming into the United States.

As we all know, America was built on the backs of laborers. We cannot turn our backs on them now.

Although the actions taken by the steel industry and the Administration have caused the amount of dumped steel to drop, more needs to be done. We need to be firm and make it very clear to our competitors that we will not tolerate illegal dumping of any kind.

American Steel companies and organized labor have worked very hard over the last decade to restructure and to restore the integrity of this important industry. We cannot allow these sacrifices to be in vain.

I am a co-sponsor of Rep. VISCLOSKY's bill to reduce steel imports to 25% of the U.S. market. That is the level that prevailed in July 1997—before the illegal dumping began. I hope the House will adopt this measure in the near future.

Given the nation's strong economy, now is the time to deepen our commitment to ensuring that working families keep the well-paying jobs they deserve.

RECOGNITION OF THE COMMITMENT OF MR. WILLIAM C. "BILLY" SULLIVAN TO YOUTH ATHLETICS

HON. RICHARD E. NEAL

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 3, 1999

Mr. NEAL of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, I would like to recognize the lifelong commitment to youth athletics in Western Massachusetts of Mr. William C. "Billy" Sullivan. For the past fifty years, Billy Sullivan has been a fixture on the sidelines of playing fields throughout the Greater Springfield area. As a football, basketball, and baseball player, Billy displayed an unmatched drive to succeed. His dedication to fair play and high quality athletics has been evident since he was a young man, and has continued to this day.

Billy Sullivan's dedication to athletics as a coach, manager, and organizer is unparalleled. He has coached local youth teams for well over thirty years, including a stint as manager of the Sacred Heart Semi-pro baseball team. He has been a sitting member on the Catholic Basketball League Board of Directors, the Springfield Pee Wee Baseball Leagues Board of Directors, the Basketball Hall of Fame Tip-Off Committee, and the Basketball Hall of Fame Board of Trustees. He has been Chairman of John L. Sullivan Day at Pynchon Park, the NCAA Division II Elite 8 Basketball Championships, the Springfield Civic Basketball Committee, and the Springfield Peach Basket Festival Committee. His public service resume includes time as a Member of the Massachusetts General Court, City Clerk of the City of Springfield, and Mayor of the City of Springfield.

Billy Sullivan's commitment to youth athletics will be on display on the weekend of March 26–28, 1999. Over 1,500 children, ages 7–17, will descend upon Western Massachusetts to participate in the 40th annual New England Catholic Youth Organization Basketball Tournament. Proceeds generated by the tournament will be donated to Brightside for Families and Children in care of the Vinny Del Negro Endowment Fund. Billy Sullivan and Vinny Del Negro are the co-chairman for this popular event.

Mr. Speaker, allow me to pay tribute to the service, commitment, and character of Mr. William C. Sullivan. He has proved himself to be an indispensable member of his community, as a leader, an organizer, and an advocate of youth athletics in Western Massachusetts.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. ED PASTOR

OF ARIZONA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 3, 1999

Mr. PASTOR. Mr. Speaker, due to President Clinton's visit to the 2nd District of Arizona on February 25, 1999, I was unable to cast a vote on rollcall votes No. 27 and No. 28. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on rollcall vote No. 27 and "yea" on rollcall vote No. 28.